DEFENSE INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
REGULATION NO. 0-2

HEADQUARTERS, DEFENSE
INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
WASHINGTON, DC 20340-0001
15 January 1987

INDEX

DIA Regulatory Publications

*1. (U) Purpose: To provide a reference guide of the DIA regulations and manuals. Each publication is identified by a specific number within a subject category, title, classification, publication date, office of primary responsibility (OPR), and distribution symbol(s). The publications listed are directive and implement the Department of Defense issuances as well as other authorized Federal documents.

2. (U) Supersession: This regulation supersedes DIAR 0-2, "DIA Regulatory Publications," 31 January 1986. An asterisk within a paragraph or beside a publication number indicates a change or addition. Regulations listed with TBP (to be published) in the date column are pending. When printed, these publications will be distributed. The final page of the Index is a listing of regulatory publications that have been rescinded or superseded since 31 January 1986.

3. (U) Requisition and Dissemination: Formula symbols for internal and external distribution are defined in DIAR 12-11, "Distribution Formula Symbols." The index is distributed to the DIA elements, Defense Attache Offices, U&S Commands, Military Departments, and other designated DoD Components. DIAM 59-1, TBP, will outline the DIA dissemination system and will incorporate the guidance presently contained in DIAR 59-8, "Dissemination of DIA Administrative Publications."

4. (U) Security:

a. (U) The inclusion of classified titles in this index places additional security responsibility on the user. The index must be properly safeguarded in accordance with DoD 5200.1-R/DIAR 50-2, "Information Security Program." Whenever classified titles are extracted from the index, they must be properly marked and safeguarded in the same manner as is any other classified information.

b. (U) All titles of regulations and manuals listed in this index are unclassified unless otherwise noted. Classified titles are indicated by an abbreviated classification marking in parentheses immediately following the title. The classification of the document and any special dissemination restrictions are shown immediately following the title classification marking.
